

Mirrors and Windows Texts

Year Three

EVERY CHILD deserves to see themselves represented in a book. We all also deserve to open up our minds and learn about people all around the world who may be different to us.

“Diversity is the one thing we all have in common. Celebrate it every day.”

	Main Character from Minority Cultures A magical and gently comic tale of friendship and thinking of others. This lovely story will amuse and entertain children and maybe make them pause for thought too.
	Physical Disability Ade doesn't always feel welcome in his new community, fitting in is hard, especially as he looks different to everyone else. The story is full of positive messages. Ade has to overcome many hurdles but is fortunate to have good friends to support him along the way.
	Speech Delay Lizzie refuses to speak. She doesn't want to. That is, until she meets Great-Gran – a member of the new family who is even more stubborn than she is.
	Hearing Impairment A hilarious and heartfelt debut from multi-award-winning, hearing aid wearing, Samantha Baines. Harriet discovers her hearing can do more than she ever bargained for when she finds an alien in her room.

Mirrors and Windows Texts

Year Four

EVERY CHILD deserves to see themselves represented in a book. We all also deserve to open up our minds and learn about people all around the world who may be different to us.

“Diversity is the one thing we all have in common. Celebrate it every day.”

	Neurodiversity - Twins Twins bring double the trouble and double the fun. An extremely relatable and genuine story about twins. This story explores the culture of a Greek family.
	Celebrating All Families – Adoption A heart-warming story about family, friendship and finding your inner fire. You need to be brave for yourself before you can be brave for other people.
	Visual/Hearing Impairment Max is used to spending time alone, it is difficult to make friends in a big, chaotic school when you're deaf. A fast-paced and enjoyable adventure that encourages readers to appreciate the small things in life.
	Celebrating Diversity A brilliantly funny story about the bravest scaredy cat in the world! Sam begins a mission to prove to the school bully and all his friends that he is a fearless adventurer.