

Mirrors and Windows Texts

Year Five

EVERY CHILD deserves to see themselves represented in a book. We all also deserve to open up our minds and learn about people all around the world who may be different to us.

“Diversity is the one thing we all have in common. Celebrate it every day.”

	Neurodiversity – Autism What would you do if you could never leave your bubble? A poignant, heart-warming tale from inside the hospital walls that teaches children the importance of treating people with empathy and kindness.
	Main Character from Minority Cultures An empowering superhero series about a British Nigerian girl who learns that her afro hair has psychokinetic powers. Heart-felt themes of identity, family and friendship.
	LGBTQ+ A novel about the courage it can take to stay true to yourself. The author presents an unforgettable story about a boy facing up to bullying and his own truths.
	Current Struggles in Society A perfect balance of tragedy and triumph. With beautiful, captivating writing, wonderfully authentic ballet details, and an important message championing the rights of refugees filled with warmth, hope and familiarity.

Mirrors and Windows Texts

Year Six

EVERY CHILD deserves to see themselves represented in a book. We all also deserve to open up our minds and learn about people all around the world who may be different to us.

“Diversity is the one thing we all have in common. Celebrate it every day.”

	Neurodiversity Twins - Celebrating All Families An adventure of twins Sam and Sammie. Each twin is unique. Each Sam has their own concerns and finds their way of dealing with things whilst being supportive of one another. A heart-warming story of a family with same sex parents.
	Celebrating Other Cultures An adventure story full of twists, turns and inspiring bravery against the odds. Kick deals with issues such as poverty, child labour and human rights in a way that proves we share more than what makes us different.
	Celebrating All Families - Foster Care Told through the innocent voice of the child, this is a story that explores endless impacts of domestic violence and celebrates the power of hope and resilience.
	Neurodiversity – OCD A moving humane funny portrait of two boys discovering what connects us all. This story tackles important issues in a sensitive way.
	Neurodiversity – Autism Expected to fit in proud to stand out. This enlightening book provides a powerful lesson in empathy. Fictionalised and sensitively written portrayal of a young girl.